

Q Rev Energy

Powered by chia seeds, Q Rev boosts energy, focus, and drive with a synergistic blend of vitamins, amino acids, and supportive nutrients. The all-natural energy sources of Q Rev are time-released, delivering long-lasting mental energy throughout the day and when you need it most.*

An Energy Revolution

Q Rev fuels healthy energy at your body's source—the brain. In addition to the all-natural, energy-boosting properties of chia seeds, yerba mate extract, and guarana extract, this revolutionary nootropic beverage includes supportive vitamins and minerals to stimulate neurotransmitter activity, protect brain function, elevate mood, and accelerate recall.*

Features:

Chia Seeds: Each serving of Q Rev has 7.5 grams of whole chia seeds, which are an excellent source of natural energy, omegas, fiber, and protein. Chia seeds also provide satiety and appetite suppression.

Natural Energy Sources: Natural caffeine, yerba mate extract, and guarana extract provide different stimulant curves to deliver long-lasting energy without any jitters or crash.

Energy Regulation: A host of nutrients, including D-ribose, L-theanine, thiamine, B vitamins, and zinc help regulate energy function even after stimulants have been metabolized by the body.

Optimal Brain Function: DMAE, L-tyrosine, and choline bitartrate are present to ensure proper brain function and health while increasing neurotransmitter activity.

Naturally Sweetened: Q Rev is sweetened with zero calorie, all natural stevia extract to provide a delicious and sugar-free drinking experience.

Suggested Use: Mix with 16 ounces of water. Stir or shake occasionally to activate chia seeds.
